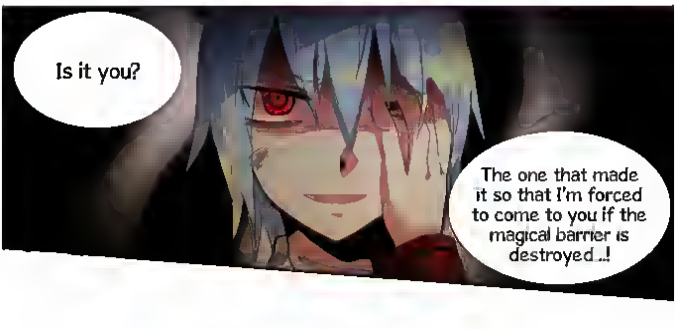
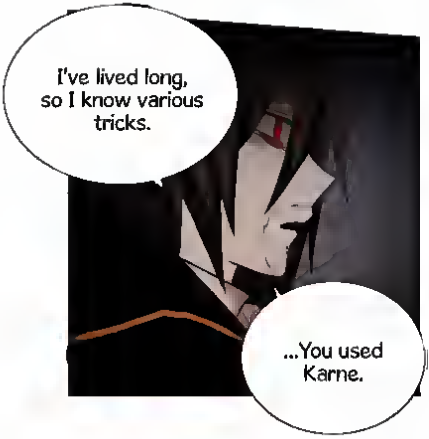
Your magical barrier has been erased...
QUIVER
...Damn you



Is it you?
The one that made it so that I'm forced to come to you if the magical barrier is destroyed..!



I've lived long, so I know various tricks.
...You used Karne.

That poor child...

CREPUSCULE

Chapter 76

Probably not...?
RUMBLE

BANG
She's probably in her room at this time, right?

Will you look at this. She didn't even lock the door.

What?!
GRAB
I HAVE SOMEWHERE TO GO!!

AND GET OUT OF THE BUILDING!!
YOU'LL BE SAFER THAT WAY!!

...What is this?

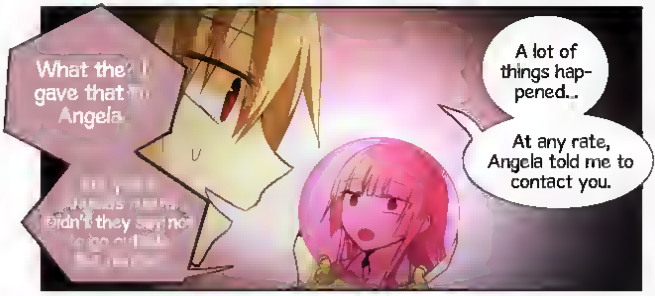
Is this why I came here...?
Is it related to that earthquake thing?
Uh...
Bathory? Can you hear me?



What the? I gave that to Angela.

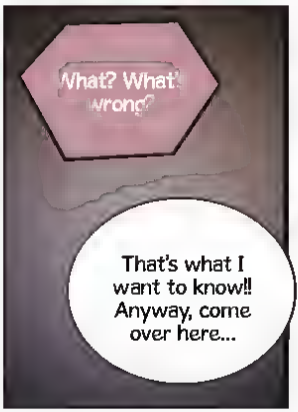
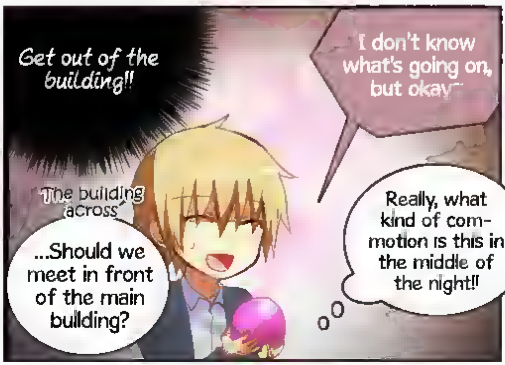
A lot of things happened...
At any rate, Angela told me to contact you.

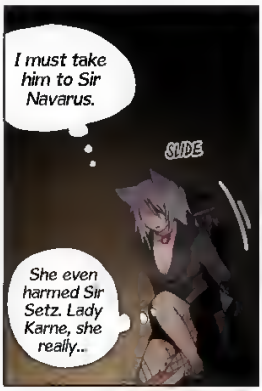


What? What's wrong?
That's what I want to know!! Anyway, come over here...



Get out of the building!!
I don't know what's going on, but okay...
The building across
...Should we meet in front of the main building?
Really, what kind of commotion is this in the middle of the night!!

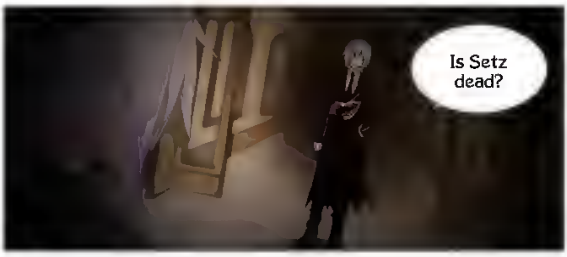
I might be overreacting...



I must take him to Sir Navarus.
SLIDE
She even harmed Sir Setz. Lady Karne, she really..

Could it be...

STEP
Oh, what do we have here?
!!!



Is Setz dead?

Don't spout nonsense.

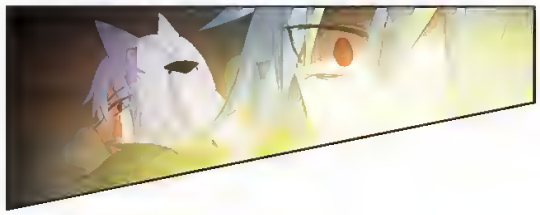
He doesn't seem to be in pain.

Why did you come here?
Sir Navarus told lowly me to solve this case~

Sly jerk.
How am I supposed to do that all alone~?

I thought you might know something~

But Setz seems to have gotten burned a bit. Could it be that he was attacked...



BOO
OM

WHAT?!

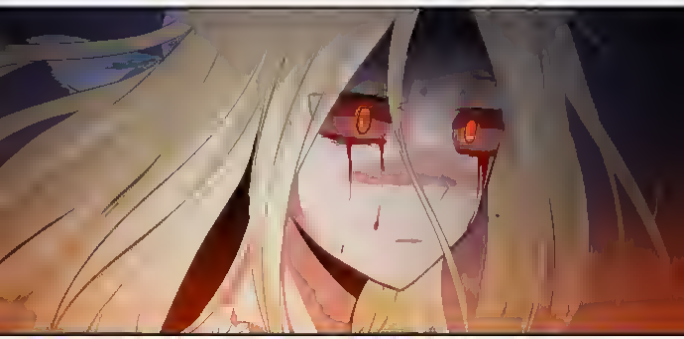
Yes, this...



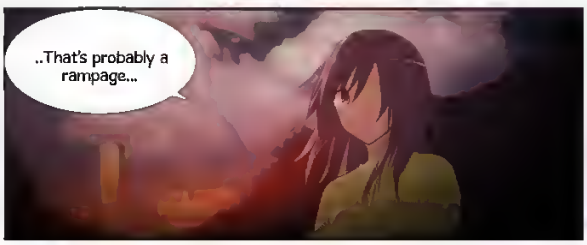
STEP
STEP
STEP

Just a little more to the main building...
BOOM!
It's continually being destroyed...

Big sis!!

Ren, Ersha.
Why are you outside!! We barely found you.

Seere, do not go to the main building.
It's in the middle of the night, so there shouldn't be any people over there, but...
There are repeated sounds of explosions... It's strange.



..That's probably a rampage...

Rampage?

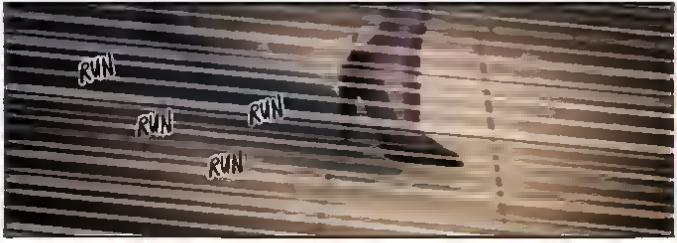
A rampage is accompanied by sudden growth and an explosion of power.

If the growth is complete, it can't be reversed...



RUN

BURST OPEN
NAVARUS!!

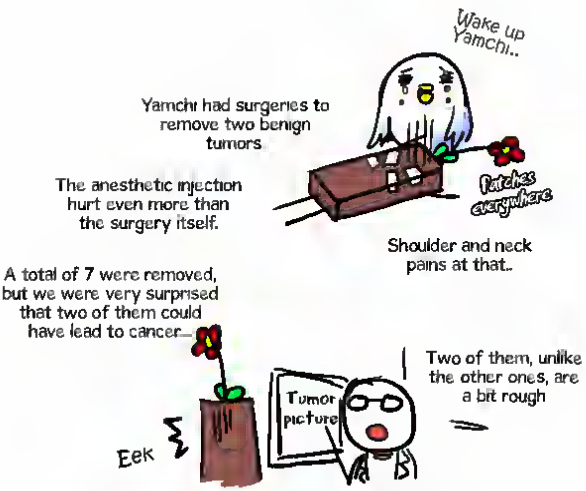
Hello. This is author Mirchi and artist Yamchi. Because Yamchi's health is bad, we prepared an extra.



Wake up Yamchi..
Yamchi had surgeries to remove two benign tumors
The anesthetic injection hurt even more than the surgery itself.
Patches everywhere
Shoulder and neck pains at that..
A total of 7 were removed, but we were very surprised that two of them could have lead to cancer—
Two of them, unlike the other ones, are a bit rough
Tumor picture
Eek

Right now, he's recovering.

Let's stop talking and start the extra.

1. When will it be completed?

Present progress

A Lot of people misunderstood that it will be completed with 200 chapters. We're not saying chapter 200 is the end, it can go beyond 200 chapters.

Part 1 will be finished when Kame's part ends and there will be a hiatus for a while.

2 Why are the chapters so short when two people are working on it?

The number of panels has always been pretty much constant with about 55 each chapter since chapter 1. It just feels short!! And we can't draw together because our roles as author and artist are separate

3. Why is Lark so weak? Why does he have such a small part even though he's the main character?

Lark is human. Because he is among vampires, it's inevitable that he looks weak. I mean, he will have a major role from part 2 on.

Sorry...

4. What's the genre of this comic?

It's not action, it's not romance; It's 'fantasy' that occurs at school.

5. What's your gender and age?

Yamchi is a hermaphrodite. Mirchi's gender is Mirchi? As for our age... we're hesitant to say, because we're so old. For reference, we're in the 20-30 range.

6. Couples?

We are couple breakers. That's all we've got to say.

Everything is as the readers see.

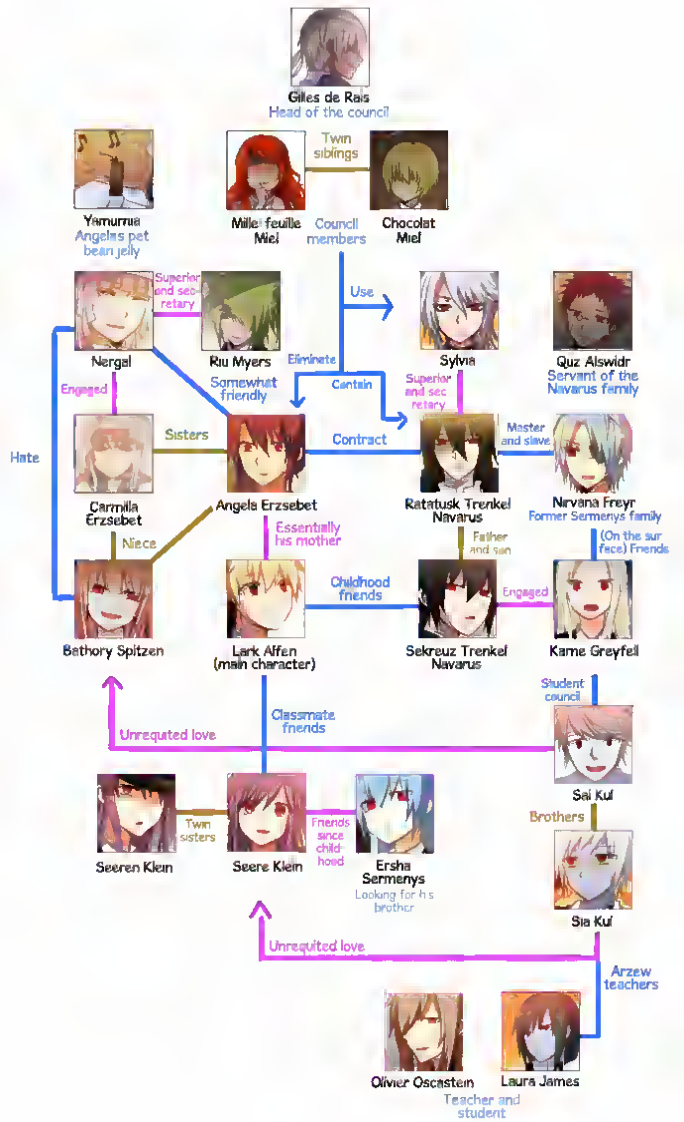
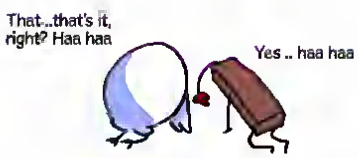
Because there are a lot of characters, we made a character relationship map to help organize.

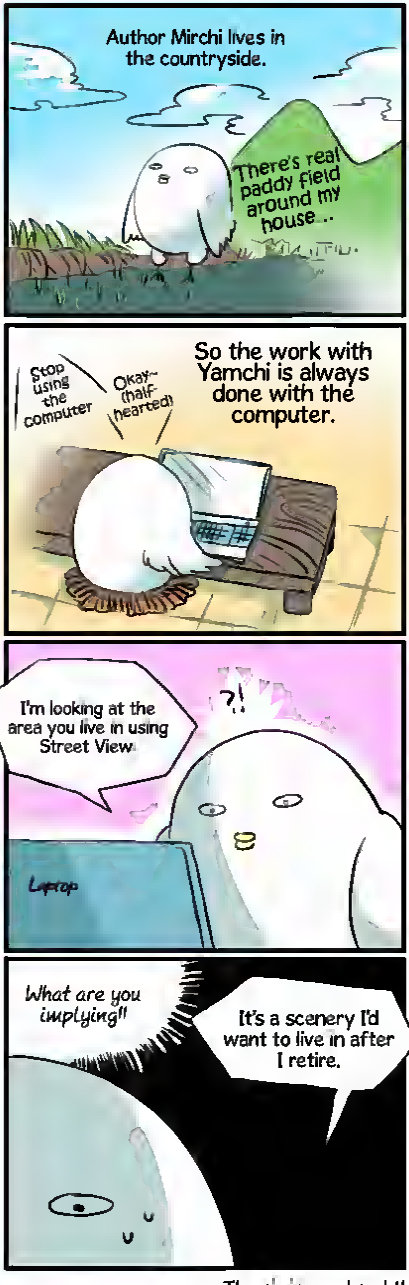




We hope this helps the readers even if it's just a little...

We did a short question and answer session but, even though it's an extra, we've prepared a short 4 cut comic due to our conscience. Since Yamchi is still recovering, let's look into Mirchi's everyday life.

Mirchi lives in the countryside



Author Mirchi lives in the countryside.
There's real paddy field around my house...
So the work with Yamchi is always done with the computer.
Stop using the computer
Okay~ (half-hearted)
I'm looking at the area you live in using Street View
?!
Laptop
What are you implying!!
It's a scenery I'd want to live in after I retire.

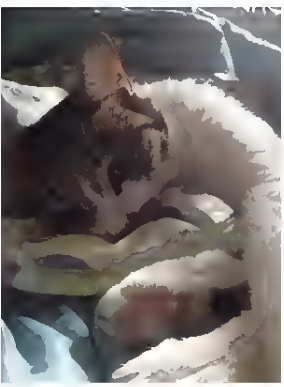
The air is good and the water is good.

Yamchi, let's exercise

Because we always talk using the computer, I heard the news about the surgery through the computer.
Why is your body so weak!! Let's exercise together!!
I'm meeting the deadlines just fine, but my stamina is running out.
Although that has nothing to do with being weak
Well, there's nothing I can do about it.
What are you talking about?
I have to absorb your energy through the monitor and meet the deadline...

If I could share it, I'd want to.

Mirchi overcoming his slump



Jongee(4 years old), the cat Yamchi raises.
Mirchi can't stop being Jongee's fan...

Who's whose

Yamchi received the character relationship map for this extra.
What?
Hey lol it's all good but what's this? lol
Huh??
Master and servant
Master and servant lolol this is funny lolol
It's true, right?
straightforward
...It's true but...
If you just write slave, you won't know who's whose slave, right?
Oh lol then Navarus is Neal's slave lol oh...lol
That's how we have fun.

Difference in perspective

A friend coincidentally found out that Mirchi is a webtoon author.
It was fun. I read the whole thing in one day!
Thank you friend.
I didn't want to kill you..!!
I thought it was going to be a confrontation between Lark's and Setz's ideals..... (blah blah blah)
But it was different from what I expected
Laaaaark!!!
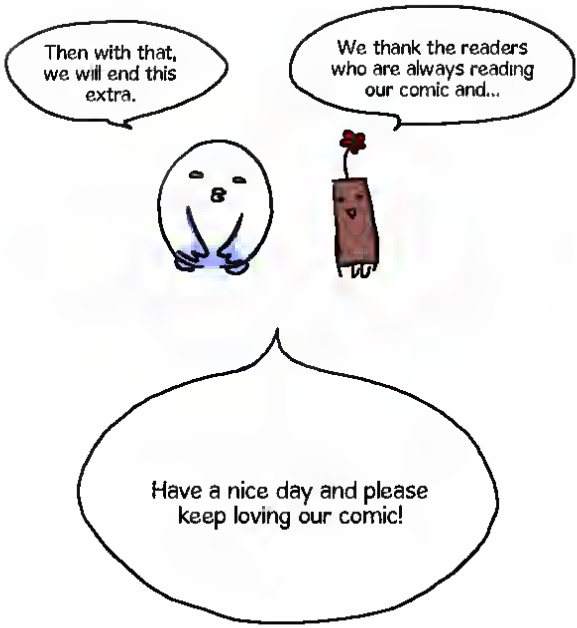
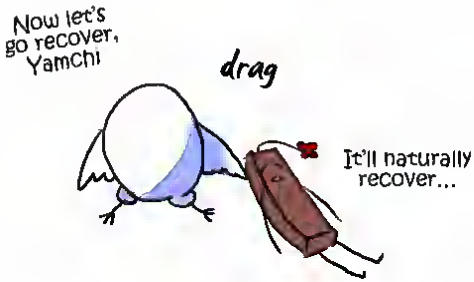
And the couples~
Everything was different from what I had thought.
Yes, there are no couples...
I...I'll work hard



Then with that, we will end this extra.
We thank the readers who are always reading our comic and...
Have a nice day and please keep loving our comic!



~extra finished~

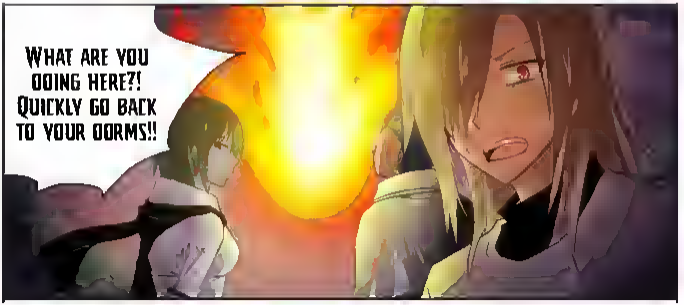
He seems fine...
Hey, you there!!



WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE?! QUICKLY GO BACK TO YOUR DORMS!!

Lark!! Over here~!!

Oh, Bathory's over there!!

Bathory, did you speak with Angela?
Unfortunately, no...

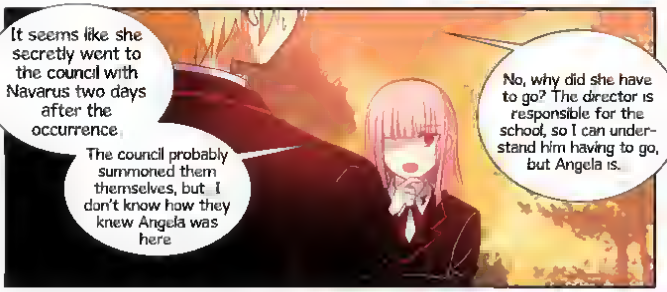
Angela already left this school.

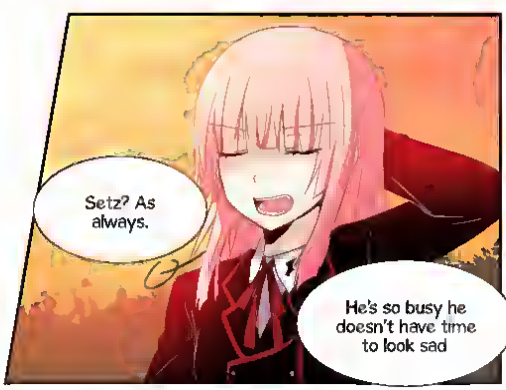
What?!



It seems like she secretly went to the council with Navarus two days after the occurrence.
The council probably summoned them themselves, but I don't know how they knew Angela was here
No, why did she have to go? The director is responsible for the school, so I can understand him having to go, but Angela is.

You wouldn't know, but this is the continuation of an occurrence that happened 200 years ago
To Angela, it is important. As it is for the council.

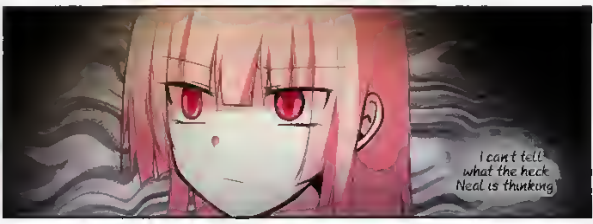
How's Setz?



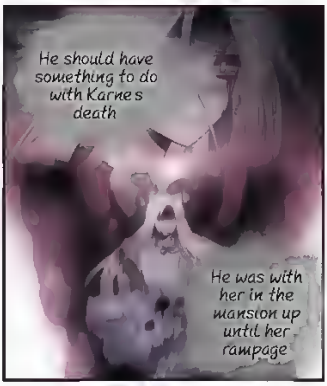
Setz? As always.
He's so busy he doesn't have time to look sad

After the simple funeral, he's working alone in the student council to put the situation under control
There are already people saying that Setz should become the president.
Karne didn't do much student council work in the first place, but Setz has been refusing it up to now
And the other problem is—

Problem?
No, well. This one doesn't have to do with you two

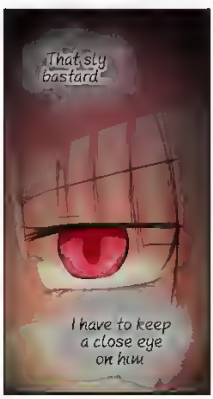


I can't tell what the heck Neal is thinking



He should have something to do with Karne's death
He was with her in the mansion up until her rampage

But he's way too quiet right now
He abandoned student council work and returned to Navarus mansion



That sly bastard
I have to keep a close eye on him

Okay...

Why did... something like this happen...

...I don't know.
I was told that Karne was unstable even when she was little.

But meeting the same end as Crawford means...
It has to do with the fact that the world is unstable...

Well...
It's a pity for Karne, but you guys should cheer up.

You two have to answer our questions thoroughly
I'm in a very bad mood because of that rampage.

I'VE HEARD NOTHING ABOUT IT!!

Pretending you don't know?

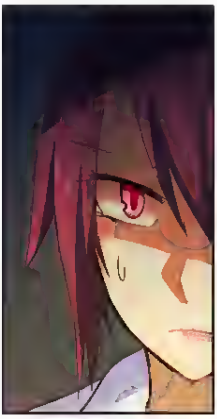
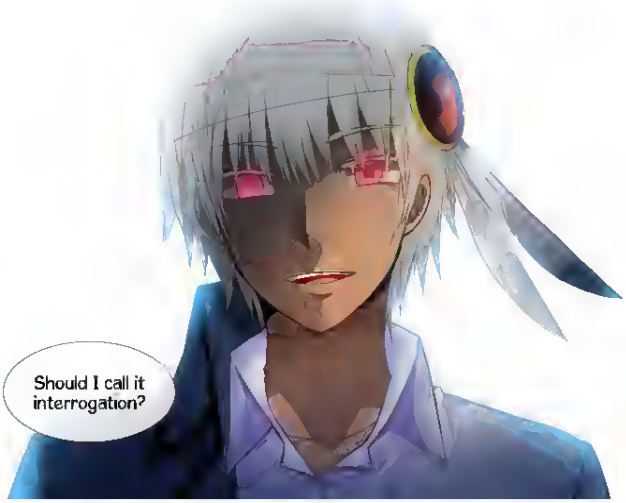
Isn't it obviously the right choice for the world?
It's I who can't understand why you are trying to hide it.

So... the often business trips were because of the council...
Now— Stop, stop!

Laura is right.
Now then, shall we start the questioning?



No...



Should I call it interrogation?

...I hope for your cooperation.

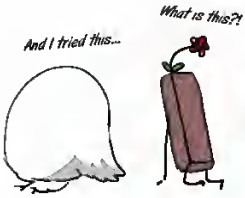
Hello! This is Mirchi and Yamchi. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank all the readers who have been reading part 1 of Crepuscule for a year and a half and will start the afterword of part 1.

The development and ending of part 1 was determined before the start, when Mirchi was still a reader and not the author. We can only offer our apologies to those that are heartbroken. We plan to answer most of part 1's unanswered questions in part 2, so we would be thankful if you read part 2 with the same interest and love you had for part 1!



We've also made a simple summary of part 1's story because a lot of people requested it ^_^!!
We hope this helps.

1. When Lark is having a difficult childhood because of his red eyes, Setz appears and befriends him. Lark overhears his relatives planning to send him to an orphanage. Lark runs away from home because of that, and follows Setz to the world of Crepuscule.

2. Although Setz planned to let Lark live with him, he is forced by his father to return home. As a result, Lark stays with Angela. Afterwards, Setz enters Arzew elementary school with his fiancée Kame, and Lark is raised by Angela in the countryside of Nergal.

-World

3. After 10 years, Lark grows into a lazy teenager. Dumbfounded at his state and because her research ingredients ran out, Angela decides to send Lark to Arzew where Navarus is director. Of course Lark, who likes to slack off at home, resists but ends up going to Arzew anyway.

-Ending and Beginning

4. Lark finally enrolls in Arzew. However, he is tired of the fact that his roommate only sleeps and his newly made friend's sister and her friend are wary of him, so Lark goes straight to the director's office thinking he should go back to Nergal after doing what Angela asked him to do. But the girl he meets on his way, Bathory...

-School

5. Lark becomes depressed after realizing the reality of vampires because of Bathory. The person that restores his courage is his newly made friend, Seerin. Seerin scolds Sharen and Ersha who were wary of Lark and they become friends. And by finding out about his roommate Sia's past, Lark and Sia become friends. And the place Karne, Sia's fiancée, headed for is

-Friend

6. The world is composed of the assembly under the council and regional nobility. The student council of Arzew becomes part of the assembly after graduation and governs the world. The most important procedure of that student council is the 'declaration ceremony' where they show their existence and ability. Lark is heading for the declaration ceremony when he catches a glimpse of Angela and tries to chase her but gets lost and meets Karne and Nirvana. Lark gets severely wounded by Nirvana's sudden rampage. Being unconscious Lark meets someone in his dream.

-Omen, First Dream

7. Lark, who woke up from the dream, is surprised to find out that Angela has come to help as the nurse. Shortly after, he hears of the accident that took place in the declaration ceremony from Seerin and Sia who came to visit him. The declaration ceremony seemed to go well with the president, Karne showing her fire, but Karne's rampage made the declaration ceremony a massive failure. At the moment, Karne recovers memories of her forgotten past and Nirvana, who was plotting something while watching the accident, is called by Navarus... Also, Lark and Setz finally recover the presence of the other at the school. However, Lark's words, spoken from his point of view, hurt Setz and he goes back to his

-Declaration Ceremony, Turning Point

8. The girl that had been secretly watching Angela, Bathory, goes to Angela and tells her that she is the daughter of Angela's big sister Bathory Erzsebet. The Erzsebet clan had been annihilated 200 years ago because of a particular incident and only Angela had survived it but Bathory was also a survivor of that incident. However, Bathory warns Angela about the existence of the council.
Meanwhile, Lark gets to learn magic from his school lessons but since vampires and humans have different body structures, he can't learn the magic of vampires. Afterwards, Lark learns magic using a human magic book, secretly acquired by Bathory.

-Magic

9. Lark got the magic book from Angela on the condition that he talks to Setz. Although Lark didn't understand why he should talk with Setz further than he did at their reunion, he tries since he made a promise with Angela. Lark starts a conversation with Setz who came to the nurse's office for Karne's medicine, but Setz had a past that Lark didn't know about.
Afterwards, Lark is admonished by Bathory about his indolent way of thinking and decides to befriend Setz once again although it's still somewhat awkward. .
Nirvana, who was trapped in the mansion because of the incident with Lark, returns.

-Dream and Reality

10. Karne heads to her old house with Nirvana to confirm her past. After remembering everything, she sheds tears. Seeing Karne in such a state, Nirvana proposes that they run away but is rejected. Meanwhile, although Lark tanks his quarter finals, he enjoys his school life with his friends. However, Nergal, who saw Bathory at the declaration ceremony, infiltrates the school to take Bathory. Lark and Setz who were returning from the nurse's office encounter Bathory and Nergal, who was chasing her.

11 Lark finds out the truth about the world through Nergal, that the world was created by one vampire named Karmilla and that the vampires of the present are being sacrificed for the world All the while, Lark wonders about the familiarity he feels from Nergal, and Nergal talks as if he knows Lark is human
However, Nergal is suppressed by Navarus and Lark finds out that Nergal is the fox that he used to play with Afterwards, Lark and Setz find out about Angela's objective which strikes fear into Lark's heart

- Fragment

12 Lark shakes off the awkwardness, which Angela being a pureblood succubus that lives forever created, by having a conversation with her and tells her about his real mother, Florian Alfen Seere, having overheard the conversation about the world, tells Angela about her past and starts to help Angela in her research
In the meantime, Sylvia, who went to report about the 'forest' in Nergal's stead, is won over by the council

-Mother

13 Karne keeps getting depressed because of her past. To make matters worse, Nergal's familiar that was left behind becomes parasitic and invades Karne Because of that, Karne recovers her past memories completely and asks Nirvana to take her and run away However, Nirvana coldly rejects her and condemns her. As a result, Karne's wings, which were abnormal ever since she was little, awaken completely and after destroying part of the mansion, Karne heads to Setz, who is in the school.

-Parasite

14 Karne, who finds Setz, completely goes on a rampage because of their misunderstandings and engulfs herself in a ball of fire in the sky The teachers of Arzew start working to hold her back and Lark goes to Angela after having a strange dream Seere recognizes the ball of fire as the rampage Angela talked about and goes to the ball of fire with Seeren and Ersha following her Afterwards, Karne stops her rampage and falls, but in the end she never hears what she wants to hear from Setz and vanishes

-Repeat

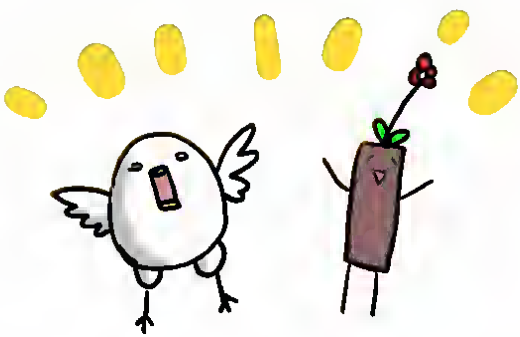
Although there were many complications in part 1, now that it ended, I am getting new sentiments ^^. It felt harder because the story and characters were not made by Mirchi from the start, but I think we were able to make it this far because of the readers.

I remember that I was surprised because there were readers that predicted the death of Karne just with the prologue (I purposefully grayed out Karne slightly ^^) and noticed Nergal's identity weeks before it was revealed--

(And although it is a very trivial thing, the reason Angela didn't like Lark's name is because of Navarus (Ratatusk))

Although part 1 was the beginning part, a year and a half was such a long time... We are both very excited that we are in the beginning stages of part 2 which we've been waiting for years. However, we will come back after a time of recuperation so that we can deliver a better story.

See you early December! ^^



Thank you.

Part. 2

With intertwined relationships

Was I wrong?

Do you regret it?

No.

Their second story unfolds under the red sky

Hello Angela!

I'm fine like I've always been
Although the atmosphere at school is still heavy because of the Karne incident
It's slowly returning to normal

However... I'm worried about Setz...
I couldn't meet him since that time

I did get a glance of him from afar and he looked like his usual self

But I'm sure it's only his outer appearance

Come back quickly and...

Together...

Lark!!

Hi~

Bathory?

You don't even have friends to eat with?

This brat... Are you rejecting my generosity?!

How many days have you been eating lunch alone, now that Seere, who usually ate with you, is busy doing work in the nurse's office?

I couldn't bear looking at that sight, so I came to you myself.

You should be thanking me, you know~!

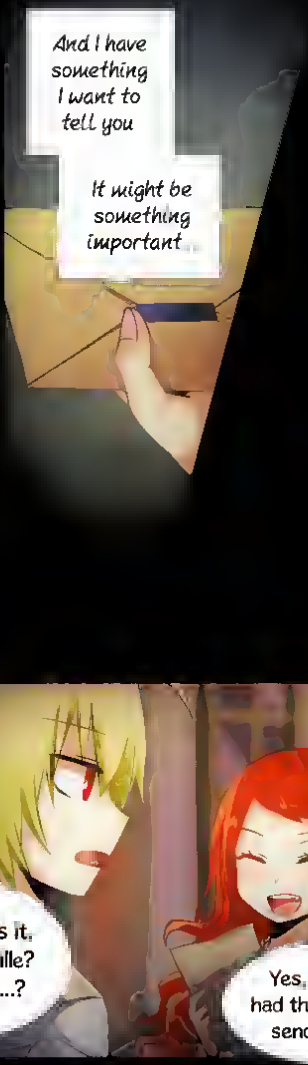
Aren't you even worried about Angela?

Of course I'm worried.

But she will be okay
The council can't touch Angela

...You seem so sure about it.

I told you I know everything.
Let's go have fun together
You, Setz, Bathory and everyone



And I have something I want to tell you
It might be something important...
...What is it, Mille-feuille? A letter...?
Yes, someone had the nerves to send a letter.

Angela sure is loved—

The council is made up of zealous followers of Karmilla and they are the main group that governs the world.

Their rule has continued for centuries.

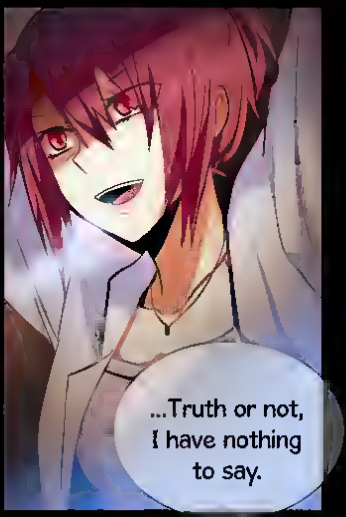
I feel nauseous...

The assembly exists under them, but the real power lies in the council.
A will to protect the world.
What are you thinking, Angela?

Are you starting to consider telling the truth?

I told you repeatedly that I don't want to hurt you, but...

I don't have any other options if you continue to be like this.



...Truth or not, I have nothing to say.

You really are the same after all this time.
You were a stalker that only chased big sis. You didn't listen to others.
Even big sis Bathory hated you a lot.

It really got to you that only I survived when everyone else disappeared without a trace, right?
That's why you're trying to find fault like this.

You sure babble a lot, Angela.

Good — Today's lesson is over.
Don't forget to thoroughly review today's lesson and prepare for tomorrow's lesson!!
Yes—!!

Ah, and just as I announced a while back, the magic tests that were postponed because of my health will be resumed tomorrow~!!
Boo

Stop complaining. I am still unwell~
But I'm doing my best for our little kittens~!!
Except for the guys.
what was that last part?
Magic tests, that's still a bit difficult...
Seere, could you perhaps help me today?
Huh? Ah...

I'm sorry I need to go to the nurse's office...

Today as well?! It feels like you're practically living there.
I can't do anything about that. Since the school nurse is gone

She should come back quickly.

Angela's vacant spot is still big

Ah.

Setz!
Bathory!

Ah...
Lark!!

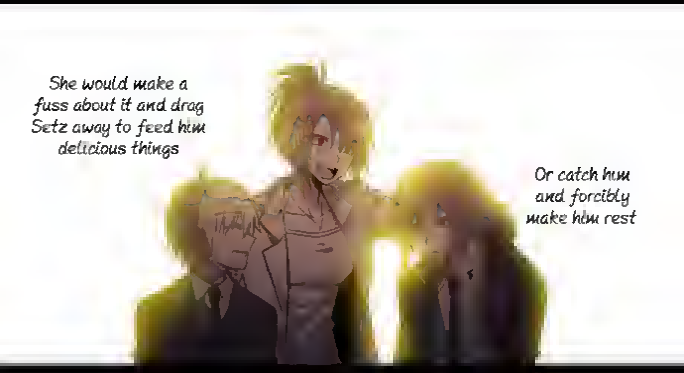
But the vacant spot left by a person gone forever is probably bigger...

Now that I think about it, this is the first time with Setz since then.
You've been well?
Even so, everyone is working hard.

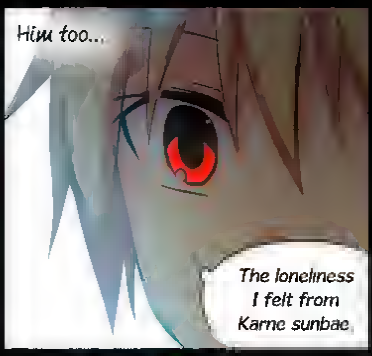
.....

Don't even talk about it~!! This guy is working all day.
We are helping him, of course...
What?
Lark, you say something too~ you're supposed to rest as well!

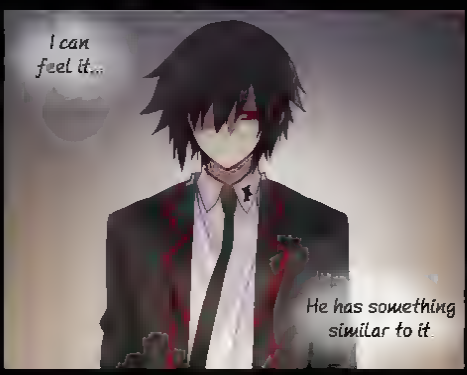
...If it was Angela
Setz.



She would make a fuss about it and drag Setz away to feed him delicious things
Or catch him and forcibly make him rest



Him too...
The loneliness I felt from Karne sunbae



I can feel it...
He has something similar to it

Now that Karne sunbae is gone..
Is there a way for me to help him?

I have some business to take care of, so excuse me...

Haa, really~
HEY, SETZ!!

...He's going away without even looking back.

...I think I understand him a little bit.

But still, I can't leave him like that.

What?
Angela and Navarus...?

Yes, according to her, they are being confined by the council.
...What should we do, Sir Nergal?

You!!
If I make this public, I'll have to talk about past events, starting with the rampage 200 years ago.
If I do that, things that I tried to hide will be revealed!
...They only thing you seem to be wanting is me admitting to being a traitor,
But why should I do that?
I bet my big sister would really like it.

Chapter 85

I didn't realize there was such kind of place in the school.
Setz!

Ah... Good work today. Are you leaving now?
Yeah, did everyone leave already? What about you?
I...

Still have to...
...organize my thoughts about a matter

.....
I better not disturb him, right?

It might be best to just leave

But... No. I won't.

Why was Karne sunbae so lonely...?

Eventhough she had Setz...?

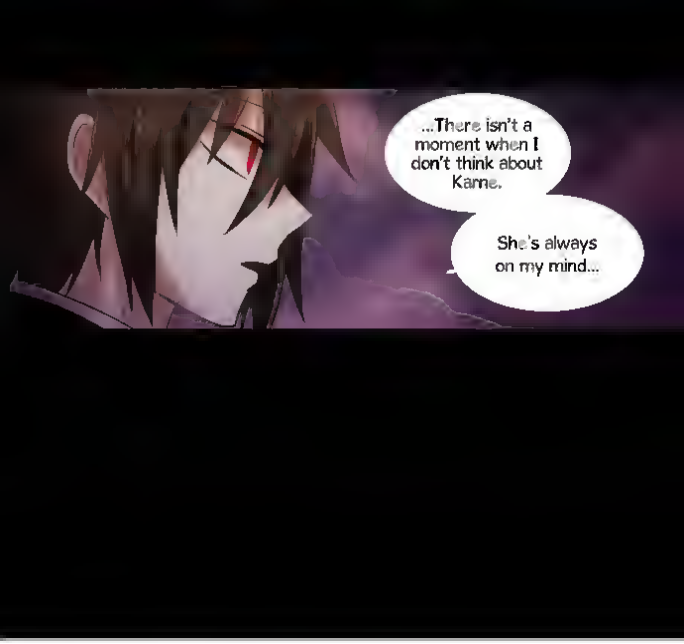
Isn't it a bit chilly tonight?

Are you thinking about Karne sunbae?

...Well...



...There isn't a moment when I don't think about Kame.
She's always on my mind...

But that...
...isn't what Kame would have wanted.

I'm so...
Sorry for that tighten

She probably... wouldn't have wanted this, either...

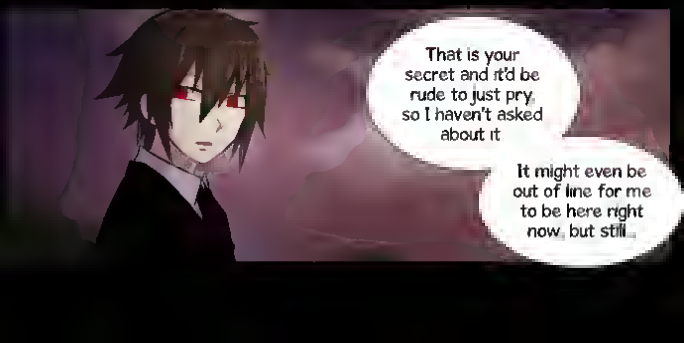
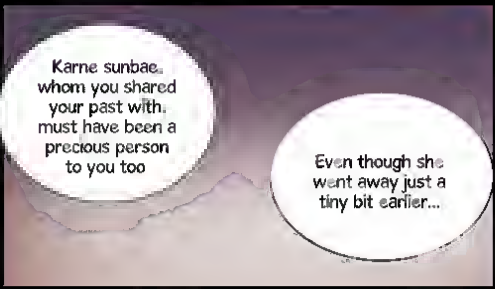
.. I don't know what to do.

Actually Setz, I don't know what happened to you.
That might be the reason why you changed.



That is your secret and it'd be rude to just pry, so I haven't asked about it
It might even be out of line for me to be here right now, but still...

...No, not really...
Anyways!



Karne sunbae, whom you shared your past with, must have been a precious person to you too
Even though she went away just a tiny bit earlier...

What's important right now...
...is the memory of your precious moments together
Even though it might not have been as she wanted to...
Kame subae was always on your mind.

Did Karne sunbae know about this?

If not... then what you can do from now on...
Is to let her know...

That as long as you live...

You will never forget about her.

A-ahaha. Did I sound out of character?

Actually, this is...
...something that I would like to hear from Angela.
If Angela, who is immortal... doesn't forget about me even after I die then I will never be alone

...It'd be nice if Karma sunbae would also think like that...
I...

I think I said everything I had to...

I want to hear the reply now...

Gille de Rais.

Fine.

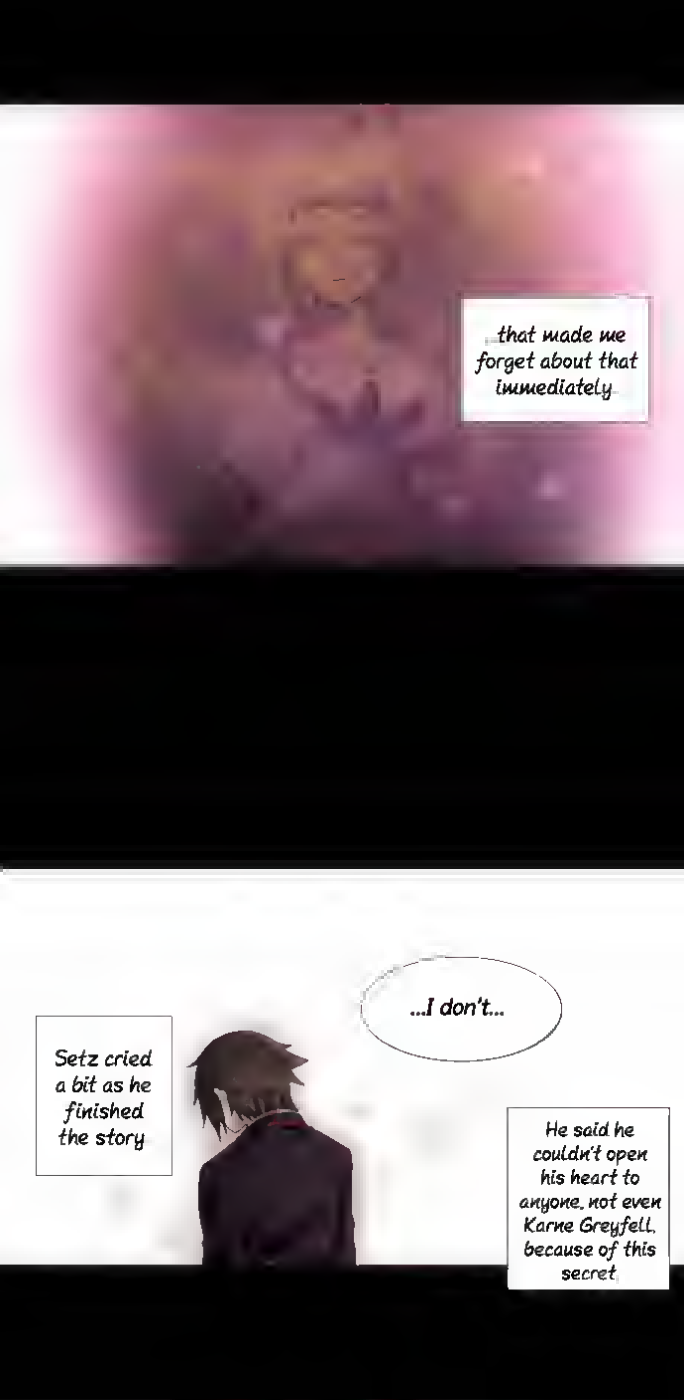
Setz started telling a story with a trembling voice.

That trembling voice was so unlike him...

It surprised me a bit

But the content of the story was so shocking



...that made me forget about that immediately
...I don't...
Setz cried a bit as he finished the story
He said he couldn't open his heart to anyone, not even Karne Greyfell, because of this secret

I couldn't say anything
I don't want anyone else to disappear like Karne did!

It's fine. You have been a great help already.

Thank you.

No need to thank me. I think you should thank Sylvia instead.

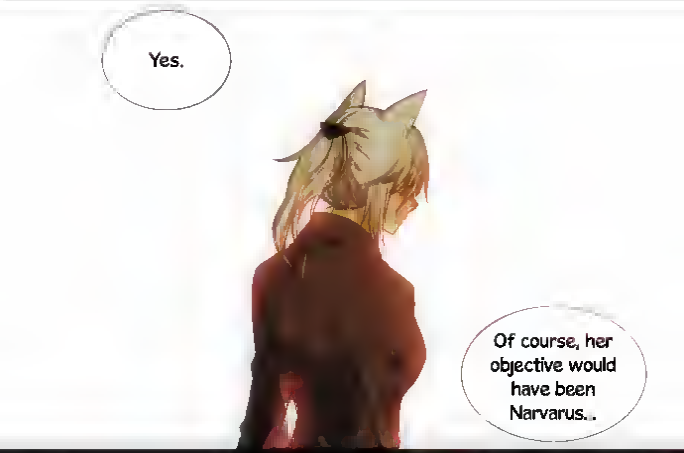
What?
She was the one who told me that you and Navarus were locked up here.
She did...?



Yes.
Of course, her objective would have been Narvarus...

It's a shame though...
Gille de Rais would never let Navarus go.
You have the Ersebet name so it will be dangerous for him to touch you hastily
But Navarus has a public face so it's a double edged sword and there's enough material to use against him.
He'll take a hold of Navarus in your stead and blame everything on him

Of course he wouldn't be able to torture Navarus like he did to you.

Yes. It's more complicated than a nurse going missing.

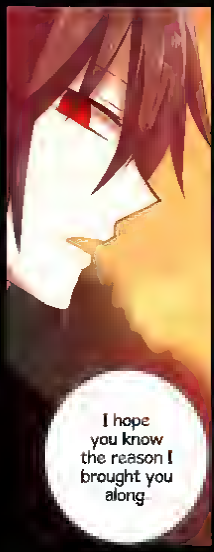
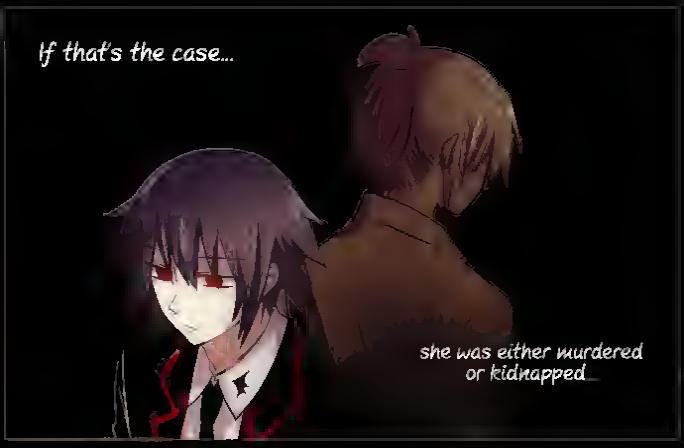
What?
Nothing. I'll leave it to you.



I hope you know the reason I brought you along.

Yes.

We just need to figure out whether what happened here is connected to an ability.



If that's the case...
she was either murdered or kidnapped...

It could have simply ended with magic...
But she's also a First Generation. She wouldn't have been easily taken down.
It wouldn't be too late to report to the school once we find out what happened.

She is part of the Erzebet family.
If that's revealed, there'll be a huge uproar, for sure.

There's a trace of a very powerful ability that must have dealt a blow.
